We deplore a Union held together by the sword, &c. This is a resolution passed by the Union party, and we have not heard of one of the party that does not stand by it to-day. We are opposed to a Union held together by the sword, and do not expect such a Union to exist; but, at the same time, we are opposed to dividing this Union by the sword. The course pursued by the Disunionists is opposed to the entire spirit of the resolution above. They have coerced even minorities in States and threatened the most violent measures to Western Virginia and Eastern Tennessee. Let it be borne in mind that the minorities in States have rights, and that it is no better to hold States together by the sword, than to hold a Union of States by the sword.

It does not follow that laws are not to be executed by the sword, if need be. No Government could exist if its laws were to be nullified by a part of it with impunity. It does not follow that a faction shall control the Government, and trample on its laws. Because we are opposed to a Union held together by the sword, don't take it for granted that we have abandoned all ideas of Government; that we shall be strong enough to take the ground that a Government shall not protect its citizens or itself.

We shall see in time whether this Union cannot be held together without force. The position which political leaders have assumed, and the tempest they have raised, are no indication that hereafter the people will endure this precipitation, and sacrifice their interest to a blind passion. The law was executed in South Carolina when the State was armed to resist; yet it did not make a Union held together by the sword.

Here is another item from the Memphis Argus, of the 4th inst:

The letter of Fitz Henry Warren, which we publish in another column, is worth reading. He has been the correspondent of the New York Tribune, and wrote some bitter things about the conduct of military affairs in Washington. If he tells the truth, there has been a shameful incompetency at Washington. The whole military there need cleaning out and reforming generally. General Scott is reported to have said he ought to be removed. It is more likely his superordinates need removing and brushing away. They are expensive nuisances. The necessities of the time would produce the man; but they have not done so yet on either side.

We call attention to a call for a meeting of the Union Democracy of Grant county. The suggestion is a good one, to adopt some common platform of objects for a great Union party North and South, and effect its complete organization, so that the people of both sections of the Union may have a chance to make themselves heard. Our cause is just, noble and patriotic, and the point is, what are the best means to accomplish it? Let the plan be adopted and extended to all the States, and the work will be done. Four-fifths of the people long to save their country; let them move, and they can do it, in spite of armies and politicians.

Stories of the brutal butchery of wounded prisoners at Bull's Run seem well authenticated, although hardly credible. Such, however, are the atrocities of civil war. Those who began it, with no good cause, must account to God and man for the execrable deeds that follow. The Southern demagogues that, to get office and power, undertook to destroy their country, perhaps didn't appreciate what they were bringing on it. Their ignorance and incompetency were equal to their ambition. On their heads rest all the crimes that war has produced.

The Senate would not pass the resolution approving all the acts of the President. That was discreditable. He has no place but necessity for some of them, and the Senate had not that plies for approving them. Let posterity, after the war is over, give its verdict on the acts of the President in this hour of passion and trouble. The Senate did well to pass over the subject.

Tremendous victory this time! We have again the same sort of yarn from Missouri. Lyon is taken now. Of course Sigel ought to be taken at the same time, to make the victory complete, and it had as well been won on paper at once, for it is not likely to be won elsewhere.

It appears, from the last accounts, that the Federal troops had really won at Bull's Run, and that but for the arrival of several regiments of Johnston's command, all would have been over with the Confederates at that point.

Governor Pickens, of South Carolina, was refused a pass to Manassas after the battle of Sunday, and no civilian was allowed to go beyond Richmond, in that direction.

W. T. Samuel, of Hardin county, is a candidate for the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives. He is an accomplished clerk and good Union man.

W. J. Landrum, of Garrard county, is a candidate for the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives. He is well qualified for the post.

Hon. Aaron Clark, ex-Mayor of New York, died on the 2d inst., aged seventy years.

Two persons, a man and woman, were killed by lightning in Cleveland, Sunday night last.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 8, 1861.

NUMBER 20.

From our Southern Exchanges.

Business houses in Charleston, S.C., are closed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, (except on Saturdays) to give the young men time to drill, &c.

We find the following item in the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle and Sentinel of the 4th inst:

Gen. Tecumseh Bascom—Gen. Tecumseh, of the Louisiana Brigade, has sent in his resignation to the President. The cause of his resignation has not transpired.

The Charleston, South Carolina, papers of the 4th, and other Southern papers, publish the same bogus dispatches which the Courier gave of the tremendous exploits of McCulloch at Springfield, Mo. The bogus news has been spread broadcast through the South.

A Ser.—Among some half dozen priests by the Central train, was one Robert Hammons who reached Richmond yesterday, and was arrested in the Western Union, who has been arrested in the Western part of this State, and sent on here to be tried as a spy.

Lee Williams, a person who was arrested near Union City a short time since and escaped, was again arrested yesterday, and placed in confinement in this city. He is not likely to escape again.—Memphis Avalanche, 3d.

We find the following precious paragraph in Friday's Richmond Whig:

The shortest note of peace is that which carries havoc and desolation to our invaders. It is believed that there are five or ten thousand men in the South ready and will risk to share the fate of Curtiss, and devote themselves to the salvation of their country. It is proposed that all who are willing to make this sacrifice shall arm themselves with a sword, two five shotches, a carbine each, and meet on horseback at some place to be designated, convenient for the great work in hand. Fire and sword must be carried to the houses of those who are visiting those blessings upon their neighbors. Philadelphia, and even New York, is not beyond the reach of a long and brave arm. The moral people of these cities cannot be better taught the virtues of invasion than by the blazing light of their own dwellings.

None need apply for admission to "the devoted band" but those who are prepared to take their life in their hand, and who would induce the least expectation of returning. They dedicate their lives to the destruction of their enemies.

The following item we clip from the Memphis Argus, of August 5th:

MEMPHIS FLOUR.—The steamer Louisville J. Combs, leaves for New Orleans this evening with a very fine freight trip. She has over fifteen hundred barrels of Memphis made flour, destined for the Crescent City. The Abolition hounds of the Cincinnati Commercial and Gazette can put in their pipe and smoke it.

MAMMOTH CAVE.—If you wish to avoid the extreme hot weather, visit Mammoth Cave. Do you desire to visit the coolest, handsomest, and neatest place in Kentucky, visit Mammoth Cave; and if you desire to enjoy yourself for a few weeks, visit the great Kentucky attraction, the Mammoth Cave. There you will find all the usual amusements and comforts of summer resorts.
And we are assured by parties and persons, who have enjoyed the fine and superior accommodations of the magnificently managed hotel, under the proprietorship of Mr.
E. K. Osley, that the accommodations are unequaled by any place of summer resort, and the place is perfectly delightful, and the charges are very moderate.

Get on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and in three hours you will be at Cave City, where you will find fine coaches to carry you over to the Cave, over a good road, abounding in beautiful scenery.

THURSTON GUARDS.—A new military company has been organized in the First ward, composed entirely of good Union men, and named in honor of Charles M.
Thurston, Clerk of the County Court. At a meeting last night the following officers were elected: Jesse F. Hammon, Captain; John Ewald, First Lieutenant; F. Van Seggern, Second Lieutenant; John Elberbeck, Third Lieutenant; F. Miller, Orderly Sergeant; John Beck, Second Sergeant;
Charles Yentz, Third Sergeant; R. Lechleit-ner, Fourth Sergeant; A. Rush, First Corporal;
T. Rush, Second Corporal; G. Held, Third
Corporal; C. Rammer, Fourth Corporal;
Henry Sheer, Ensign; Henry Krupp,
Treasurer; F. Van Seggern, Company
Clerk.

THEATER.—Friday Night.—The beautiful comedy of the Rose of Amiens will be performed on Friday night. We believe it is founded upon the French, like many of the most successful of modern English comedies. It is spoken of as one of the very best of its author, and holds a high place in the modern drama.
The face of the Secret will conclude the performances, which are of attractive promise, and we hope will draw satisfactorily.

We are indebted to Mr. L. A. Civil for a beautiful pamphlet edition of Louis-Joseph Holt's speech delivered in Louisville on the 13th of July, 1861; also his letter to Joshua F. Speed, of our city. Also an oration by Edward Everett, delivered on the 4th of July. The "Star-spangled Banner," set to music, and illustrated by F.
O. C. Darling very beautifully, which should be found in every parlor. Get these and many other things at L. A. Civil's store on Main street.

There is a dispatch from the N. Y.
Herald, published in this morning's paper, asserting that there are ten thousand Union men armed in this State, and waiting for the result of the election to take some active steps in the war. We do not know of any armed force in Kentucky, or any disposition on the part of Kentuckians to do anything more than protect themselves in some districts where Secession predominates.

THE MILITARY BOARD.—The Military Board have distributed all the arms now on hand. It is therefore unnecessary for Home Guard Companies to make application for arms. The Board will meet again on the 29th inst.

There is at this time a great demand for ammunition—rifled cannon and Elrod's painted photographs. Elrod's gallery is 409 Main street. The photographs are sold at war prices, and so are the cannon. Go and see.

Those wishing business attended to in New York will do well to apply to the person advertising in another column, who we can recommend as a most reliable gentleman, entirely competent for any business he may undertake.

RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT.—Gen.
James Speed, having resigned the office of Brigadier-General in the Home Guard of the city, Captain George Jones has been appointed to the vacancy.

Thanks to the ever attentive agents of Adams Express, and to the proprietors of the American Express, for favors to our city.

MAD DOG.—A mad dog was shot on Second street, New Albany, by his owner yesterday, after very narrowly escaping being bitten.

(For the Louisville Democrat.)

TAYLORSVILLE, SPENCER CO., Ky.,
August 7, 1861.

MESSES. HARVEY, HUGES & CO.:

Gentlemen: The election in this county has passed off quietly, resulting in the defeat of the secession party, horse, foot and dragon, attended with bankruptcy and ruin. Fortunately, however, Old Salt River is navigable, and ready to receive upon her bosom the scattered forces of the party, who, I have no doubt, will safely navigate to its head waters in order to be comforted by congenial spirits; but, like Rachael of old, she refuses to be comforted.

The question, "No Federal Tax," was ingeniously but cautiously set forth in the shape of a ticket (herewith enclosed), by examination of which you will at once perceive the trick to deceive the unwary but devoted Union men of the county. Yes heaven and earth were, as it were, being raised to accomplish the aim of ambitious party leaders, whose motto is to drive the Union, and thereby make her the battle ground for the numberless soldiers of the North and South, and resulting in the irretrievable ruin of her people.

GOVERNMENT.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN CO., Ky.,
August 6, 1861.

MESSES. HARVEY, HUGES & CO.:

Gentlemen: The smoke of battle has cleared away, and the result is as follows:

Poindexter (Union) carried the county by six hundred majority. McPherson, (anti-Union, anti-cooperation, etc.) is laid on the stump. Sic transit gloria Beauveray. W. B.

WE learn from the Lexington Observer and Reporter that on Monday, whilst Wm. McDowell was engaged in a fight with
Wm. Daniel, at Nicholasville, John McAfee, brother to the secession candidate for the Senate, shot him, perhaps mortally in the back with a large-sized Colt's revolver.
It was not expected yesterday that McDowell could possibly recover. The air produced the greatest excitement; and McAfee was immediately arrested and placed under a strong guard, to await the result of the wound. It was with the greatest difficulty, we understand, that the crowd was restrained from hanging him at once. At the last accounts McAfee was in the court-house, with a guard of eighty men over him, and McDowell, it was thought, would certainly die.

Death of the House of Representatives.

We are authorized to announce WILLIAM J. LAND-RAM, of Garrard, as a candidate for Clerk of the House of Representatives of the next Legislature of Kentucky.

W. J. VAUGHN, C. H. DAVIS, J. H. SHANKS, P. B. A.
SAM'L A. MILLER, U. R. A. 1861.

J. M. DELPH, Mayor.

DIED.

On Wednesday morning, August 7th, at 9 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. South, for south-side, Joshua F. Speed, Mrs.
ELIZABETH HENRY.

Her funeral will take place from Mr. Speed's residence, this (Thursday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend. She will be buried at the residence of E. Hobbs. Arrangements have been made to convey by the railroad the wishes of the deceased.

Daily Democrat

Special Notices.

JUST THE THING.—Our attention was called this morning to a friend of ours, who, a few months ago, was sickly, feeble and debilitated—now he is healthy, strong, and robust. This great change was produced by taking MCLEAN'S CELEBRATED CORDIAL. It is a real Elixir of Life.

We advise every reader who may be sickly and debilitated, and all who are well and wish to keep so, to try it.—It is a great Cordial.

HOPKINTON, Ky., Aug. 8, 1861.

DR. SHALLENBERGER.—Dear Sir: I have to state that your Fever and Ague Antidote is daily growing into favor, and needs no putting to recommend it, as its own merits are sufficient, wherever a trial has been made. I believe it has never failed where the administration has been proceeded with in accordance with the directions. It is a pleasure to sell medicines that meet the expectation of purchasers and give satisfaction, and as such I am proud to recommend your Pill.
